The program places a special emphasis on increasing the number of CSU students who enter doctoral programs at one of the University of California (UC) institutions. Announcements and application forms for the program are circulated each year in early December through the office of each campus Pre-Doctoral Program Coordinator - see List of CSU Pre-Doctoral Program Campus Coordinators. Eligibility is limited to junior, senior and graduate students that are enrolled in a degree-seeking program at any one of the CSU campuses at the time of application. Applicants must also be U.S. citizens or permanent residents.

Award: Working one-on-one with faculty members from both CSU and doctoral-granting institutions, students receive funding for activities such as:

- Participation in a summer research internship program at a doctoral-granting institution to receive exposure to the world of research in their chosen field
- Visits to doctoral-granting institutions to explore opportunities for doctoral study
- Travel to a national symposium or professional meeting in their chosen field
- Other related activities such as membership in professional organizations and journal subscriptions
- Graduate school application and test fees.

Deadline: The new application for the 2013-14 Pre-Doctoral Program will be available in Fall 2012.
